Top 10 Techniques for Your Prosperity & Success Now!

1. Acknowledge that you are a wonderful and valuable human being. How do you think things would change if you truly believed you had OUTSTANDING VALUE to contribute? Guess what? You do! What you believe about yourself is the most powerful determining factor of your success.

List 5 qualities that you like about yourself: (These can be challenges you have had to overcome. Talents, gifts and abilities you possess)

2. Let go of what others expect, or what you think others expect. Success brings on great expectations, doesn't it? Don't be afraid to succeed because someone might expect you to do it again. Or now has higher standards "for you." Focusing on what others think only fuels your fear of success. You are the only one you need to make happy.

3. Accept your weaknesses and operate from your strengths. Just that. If your biggest weakness is your oversensitivity...take a look at how that has been your greatest strength. It has. It makes you empathic and "Awoke." Choose to operate from this strength. What's yours?

Don't stop there! What other weakness can you now endorse as your strengths? Because they are! They make you uniquely you - and relatable. Because we all have them and that's human.

4. Celebrate the success of others. Your fear of success can oftentimes be fueled by the success of others around you. You are reminded of what you aren't doing. You can become jealous and envious. But that just jams up your own flow of prosperity. Celebrate the success of others. This takes you ONE STEP closer to being able to truly celebrate your own success. Versus you hiding from them or fearing failure. These are your PASSION CLUES. Someone who is successful. S/he is doing what you want to be doing. See it from that perspective. This will empower you to allow success and prosperity to flow into your life.

List 3 People that are successful and list what they are doing that you too could be doing.

5. Stop substituting “wishful thinking” for “doing.” Wishing for success tricks you into thinking that you are not afraid of failure or success. It makes you feel like you are “doing” when you actually aren’t. Don’t get me wrong. Visualizing your success is a wonderful tool. And is part of your path to prosperity and success. Just don’t get caught up in “wishing” without action. Consistent action taken toward your goal will eventually get you there.

6. Give up perfectionism. Perfectionism goes hand in hand with fear of success and failure. We feel in order to succeed we must be perfect. As perfectionists, you ensure that you will NEVER be satisfied with who you are--you know there is no real state of being perfect. Perfection only exists where fault does not. So, then you must constantly be in search for your faults. Giving up perfectionism means you would see the good in your life. Versus the faults, and what a success that would be! This is your new mantra. Please say this daily. "Done is better than perfect."

What would you be doing right now if it didn't have to be perfect? Would you finally publish that book? Have a YouTube Channel? Open an online store with your favorite products? (Go Wild Here!)

What is working in your life?

What do you appreciate about yourself, your life and your work?

7. Identify what the expensive benefit is - when you choose to sabotage your success. Everything you do has a benefit. The sooner you discover what the expensive benefit (pay-off) is in sabotaging your successes. The closer you are to learning from it and moving on. Sometimes you just get to "be right." And prove something about yourself you believe to true. Our subconscious mind will do the work and make sure that success doesn't happen.

What is your expensive benefit? For instance, if I put myself "out there" I will be rejected. If I follow my dreams my partner will leave me. Struggling is familiar to me. Success is not. Or if I become too successful, I will not have a personal life. I will be a massive workaholic. I don't want to work harder. So, I will not give it my all.

What is holding back your success?

Now, I want you to rewrite your story acknowledge your expensive benefit. But, don't let it control you. Instead, what would you be doing if you were ten times bolder?

Where does courage dwell in you?

What opportunities are available to you write now?

When we know better, we do better. The subconscious works like a Jeannie in the bottle. It believes whatever you tell it. You can program yourself for success. By feeding your subconscious with what you want in your life.

Say this aloud and daily.

"I will not let my _____ take me down.
I know it will be challenging. But I am tougher than most. I got this!"

8. Practice being in control of your attitude and belief system. Wherever your mind goes energy follows. You reap what you sow. Your consistent thought becomes your reality. When you decide to move toward your vision planting a positive, successful self-image. You will manifest SUCCESS in your life. Plant fear and scarcity and that is what you will get.

“The minute you choose to do what you really want to be doing. It’s a different kind of life.” – Buckminster Fuller

Visualize your ideal business or career exercise:

What are you doing?

Who are you working with?

What does your day feel like?

Write about this ideal experience from your feelings not logic. It’s feelings and passion that fuels your dreams.

9. Understand that you are exactly where you are supposed to be. Your present is perfect. It may not be exactly the way you want it. But, your present is getting you to where you most want to be. The past is history. The future is a mystery. The present is your gift. All power is in the NOW. The decisions you make today determine your SUCCESSFUL tomorrow.

Always ask yourself...“what am I supposed to be learning right now?”

10. Give yourself permission to prosper! Think about what success and prosperity means to you.

What is your belief system about money?

Do you believe successful people are rotten...or the "rich get richer" mentality?

Does being successful mean, you will have to give up having a personal life?

Top 10 Techniques for Your Prosperity & Success Now!

If you have a negative belief about success, prosperity or wealth you maybe driving with your brakes on. And pushing away the very dreams you desire. You don't get what you want. You get what you believe.

You want to examine your belief system. Reframe your thinking. And ACCEPT the flow of prosperity in your life.

Say this mantra aloud and daily, "My Intention is to Receive."

And remember it is not enough to say positive mantras about your success and prosperity. You want to follow up positive thinking with ACTION. Right thinking and right action go hand in hand. And will get you where you most want to go. By thought you create what you want. By action you receive it. You want your actions to be efficient and effective. You want your actions to be aligned with your goals. This is how you build SUCCESS and PROSPERITY. Make your actions the funnel for your prosperity and success. And they will be so for you.
